The Brown Bag Series include nine sessions by celebrated experts on dynamic aspects of Idaho history, covering a wide range of topics of interest to a variety of age groups.

The Brown Bag programs take place the second Tuesday of every month from September through May from 12:00 noon to 1:00 p.m. at the Idaho State Historical Museum – except when the museum is unavailable and an alternate site is used. Attendees are welcome to bring lunch; coffee and punch are provided. Friends of the Museum and the Idaho State Historical Society members are admitted free to the Museum and the Brown Bag Series. For non-members, regular admission fees apply: $5 for adults, $4 for seniors, $3 for ages 6-12 and students (with ID), children 5 and under are admitted for free. Call 208-334-2120 for more information.
